Anti-Inflation Campaign Wins Acclaim

In a letter from the U.S. Commerce Department, James L. Pate, Assistant Secretary for Economic Affairs, recently commended Yorba Linda's Chamber-of-Commerce-promoted anti-inflation campaign.

"It is always encouraging to hear of a success story such as yours," Pate said. "It is especially so when the methods used emphasize the positive aspects of public-private cooperation, and thus strengthen our basic ideals rather than violate them."

Chamber of Commerce Executive Manager William K. OpDyke had informed the department of the success of the local effort.

Hank Wedda On SCAG Committee

Yorba Linda City Councilman Henry Wedda announced recently his appointment as an alternate to James A. Hayes, president of the Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG). Wedda will serve on the steering committee of the Los Angeles/San Diego Corridor Study Committee.

The committee has three members—the president of the Comprehensive Planning Organization in San Diego, the president of SCAG, and the California State director of transportation.

NOX Credit Bill Wins Support

Assemblyman Bruce Nestande announced today that his legislation, AB 2312, to allow individual income tax credits for those who installed auto smog devices—not now required by state law—has received widespread bipartisan support in the Legislature.

Nestande was successful in gaining the support of twelve Assemblymen and seven State Senators as co-authors for AB 2312. The bill has been assigned to the Assembly Committee on Revenue and Taxation.

Nestande stated, "This bipartisan effort will help to insure that hundreds of well-meaning drivers, who went ahead and installed these devices, will be allowed some form of relief for the cost of complying with the law when it was in effect."

Co-authors of AB 2312 include Republican Assemblymen: Robert Burke, Mike Antonovich, Robert Badham, William Campbell, Robert Mc Lennan and Robert Nimmo. Democrat Assembly co-authors are: Paul Carpenter, Tom Bane, Richard Alatorre, Fred Chel, Richard Robinson and Art Torres.

Senate co-authors include Republicans Newton Russell and James Whetmore. Democrats were: Bill Greene, Nate Holden, Robert Presley, Alan Robbins and James Wedworth.

Paramedics Here June 13

Beginning June 13, Yorba Linda and Placentia will have a paramedic program.

On that day, the new service will be inaugurated at a dedication at 5:30 p.m. at the Orange County fire station on Lemon Street. Attending will be County Supervisor Ralph Diedrich, County Fire Warden Carl Downs, and the six-man team that will work out of the station.

The dedication will culminate a chain of events that began in 1971 with passage by State Legislature of the Wedworth-Townsend Paramedic Act, permitting trained, certificated paramedics to perform at least some medical services under the direction of a physician.

On March 7 of the following year, Supervisor Diedrich's assistant Ray Rhoads recalled recently, the Board of Supervisors in a resolution authorized appointment of a County Emergency Care Committee, which was then instructed to set up a paramedic program. Training of paramedics began.

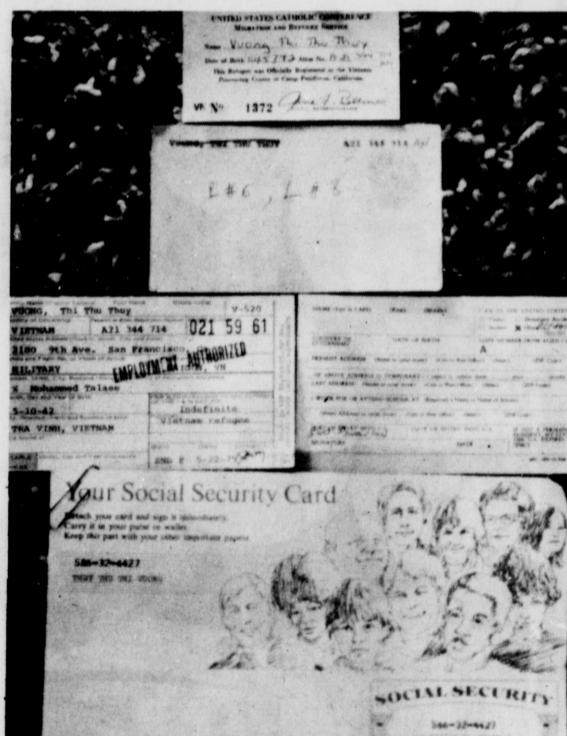

It takes six months to train a

NECESSARY CREDENTIALS—These are Thu's papers that were part of the processing in preparation for moving from Saigon into the American society. The hard part was waiting for a sponsor so she could leave the camp and start looking for a job and building a new life.

Restaurant Opens

A collage of historical Yorba Linda photographs will grace one wall of the new McDonald's restaurant when it opens on June 3.

The facility is located in Patton Plaza at the corners of Yorba Linda Boulevard and Lakeview. It will employ approximately 100 area persons according to Bill OpDyke, chamber of commerce manager.

Most of the workers are already in training at the La Habra McDonald's owned by Mr. and Mrs. George Weiss. Weiss and his wife are also owners of the Yorba Linda store.

Aside from the regular amenities, the new restaurant will offer a meeting room to accommodate groups of several dozen persons. Catering services will also be featured as well as tours of the building offered to various interested groups such as schools and clubs.

Weiss is also interested in displaying emblems from various Yorba Linda service organizations in the new establishment which will have a general western decorative motif.

Hours for the store will be 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. seven days a week.

According to OpDyke, it is anticipated that the store will gross at least $500,000 annually, with increases based on patronage growth as time goes on.

The McDonald's Restaurant is one of many new buildings and businesses anticipated for the Yorba Linda area.

Refugees Find Home Here

by Mimi Bane

Today a 25-year-old Vietnamese refugee has a new lease on life because of Mrs. Joy Young of Yorba Linda who opened her heart and home to the woman.

Yet only one week ago Vuong-Thi-Thuy (Thu), a former Saigon nightclub singer was still one of thousands of Vietnamese refugees at Camp Pendleton.

Haunted by memories of a hasty escape from Saigon, her future, at best, was uncertain.

Friday, Mrs. Young, accompanied by neighbor, Mrs. Mary Disney, brought Thu from Pendleton to her new home at 4151 Denver Drive.

A handmade welcome sign greeted the refugee, whose name means Autumn rain in Vietnamese.

A group of neighbors and friends bearing cakes and flowers also welcomed the attractive soft-spoken Thu. She wore soft white pants and long striped overdress in the Vietnamese fashion.

The drama of Thu's sponsorship began when Mrs. Young learned of the refugee through a story in an area newspaper.

A reporter touring Camp Pendleton had recognized the nightclub performer as the same one he had previously seen singing in a Saigon nightclub. He wrote about her willingness to work if officials would allow her off the base.

"I read that no one was willing to hire her to sing without an audition and in order for her to have an audition she naturally would have to go off the base," Mrs. Young said. "It seemed so unfair."

The story also aroused Mrs. Young's sympathies because of her own background as both a model and professional nightclub singer.

She said she immediately felt that she wanted to help.

So with the blessing of her husband Don, and the enthusiastic approval of their three children, 10-year-old Tammy, 5-year-old Teola and 3-year-old Troy, she set about to reach Thu.

When told by the Red Cross the process of sponsorship might take a few weeks, Mrs. Young went directly to Pendleton herself.

"It was so simple to do," she recounted. "The only conditions for sponsorship of refugees, according to Mrs. Young, is the willingness to house and feed them. It is also necessary to give or find them employment.

Mrs. Young's first task is to help Thu find work as a singer, if possible. Don Young is also willing to employ the Vietnamese woman in his print shop in Fullerton, if necessary.

Thu, still somewhat overwhelmed by her good fortune, said she was very thankful to be with a warm and loving family.

Tears weeded frequently in her eyes as she pointed to three small gold rings on her wedding finger.

Help For Refugees

Sponsoring a Vietnamese refugee is not a complicated matter, according to Mrs. Mary Disney, 4112 Denver Drive, who has viewed the Camp Pendleton situation first-hand.

Both she and Mrs. Joy Young, who already has a Vietnamese in her home, said they are willing to help anyone interested in sponsorship.

There are no papers to sign, according to the women. However, the sponsor must be able to provide a place for the refugee's to live and be willing or able to help them find employment.

Carpenter Honored

Yorba Linda carpenter Robert Kocher took first place honors in the 11 Counties Carpenter Contest held this month in Colton, California. He represented Orange County Local 2203.

Kocher, 28, lives at 5852 Santa Fe Street with his wife and two children. He is cub master of Cub Pack 775.

Competition for the event took place over a three-day period and entrants were given plans, materials

"No, I am not married. These are rings from my mother, father and sister. They gave them to me from their own fingers a few minutes before the airplane (for Guam) left Saigon," she said softly, pausing to gain composure.

The significance of the ring givings, Thu explained, lay in the fact that her family felt they might never see her again.

Because Thu sang for Americans, her family decided it was she who needed the opportunity to escape. She has not heard from them since her departure from Saigon.

Between hugs from her new sponsor and the three Young children, Thu again expressed her gratitude.

"I am thankful to be with this family. Joy is a beautiful person. Thank you. Thank you."

Bi-centennial Project Aims

For Beautification

Yorba Linda's major bi-centennial project will be an effort to beautify and clean the city. The program will begin June 7 with a week-long "Pitch in for Yorba Linda Week."

But this only will be the prelude to a broader improvement program, according to Millie Krantz, Yorba Linda Bi-centennial Committee chairman and Lorraine Scheidt, Yorba Linda Beautification Committee chairman.

Already underway, the plan calls for individuals and groups to select a "farm" and become bi-centennial "farmers".

A farm is an area in the city that needs to be weeded, cleaned, cultivated or planted. It may include an entire city block, a riding trail, a parkway or vacant lot.

Residents can work on these farms through the bi-centennial period which ends in December 1976, according to members of the committees. Everyone is urged to select his project by June 7.

The city planning department will provide potential farmers with names and addresses of vacant lot owners.

In all cases, members said, it is necessary to get written permission from property owners in order to improve their land.

After permission is granted, the bi-centennial farmer will be given an official permit.

The permit states that "the beautification committee grants the within named the rights to clean, cultivate, maintain and farm...with all honor and awards, and bestows its gratitude for good citizenship (to the aforementioned)".

Permits will be validated at City Hall on Friday, June 6 after 2 p.m., or any Friday through the summer.

Committee members said those wishing to donate flower seeds for the project may place them in an envelope in the special bi-centennial mail box at the Yorba Linda Women's Club (YLWC). Packages must be labeled as to content.

Those preferring to donate trees or shrubs may place a note in the box.

First farmer credits for the bi-centennial project have already gone to the Yorba Linda Service League for planting parkways from Rose Drive to Valley View as well as Dobs Daughters and DeMolay who will farm in the civic center area.

Next meeting of the bi-centennial committee will be July 15 at 7:30 p.m. at the YLWC.

20,000 MONTEREY PINES—local scouts are growing scores of pine trees for a bi-centennial "Greening of Yorba Linda" project under the direction of Capt. Mike Van Bibber of the Yorba Linda California Division of Forestry [above]. The trees will be distributed to local homeowners, and, Van Bibber predicts, in 15 years the city will "look like a green forest."

Ronald Reagan Column

BY RONALD REAGAN
Copley News Service

Last fall, when two U.S. senators visited Havana, they had to sit through a long anti-U.S. speech by Cuban dictator Fidel Castro before he sat down to dinner with them.

Far from complaining, they came home confidently predicting and extolling "normalized" relations between the United States and Cuba--without so much as a word about quid pro quo conditions to be placed on any negotiations.

Castro doesn't seem as naive. Recently, Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., and a troop of newsmen went to Cuba and Castro was expansive by comparison to his earlier performance. He submitted to a wide-ranging news conference and intimated that he would consider releasing nine American prisoners and $2 million of impounded airline hijack ransom money as a "gesture" toward better relations with the United States. All this underscores the fact he needs us more than we need him.

Since 1962, the trade embargo of the Organization of American States (OAS) has had a marked effect on Cuba. The island's economy is not much above the subsistence level. Even if the OAS should vote to lift the embargo, allowing member nations to decide on trade individually, it is the potentiality of trade with the United States which is most important to the Cubans.

If our diplomats hold this card in their hand it can bring important concessions of freedom for the Cuban people by their dictator.

Since the success of his 1959 revolution, Castro has managed to reduce his people to a level of egalitarian serfdom, all working for the state. Personal freedoms are nonexistent, and there hasn't been a single election in all the Castro years. What many Cubans thought would be "paradise" turned out to be something far different.

Castro's proposed gesture to return the prisoners and the ransom money is a beginning, but there are at least six other points which should be candidates for any quid pro quo:

1. Recognition of the property rights in Cuba of Americans whose property was confiscated by the Castro government, as a first step toward full compensation.

2. Free movement of Cubans and U.S. citizens (including former Cubans) between the two countries, especially insuring visits between families now separated.

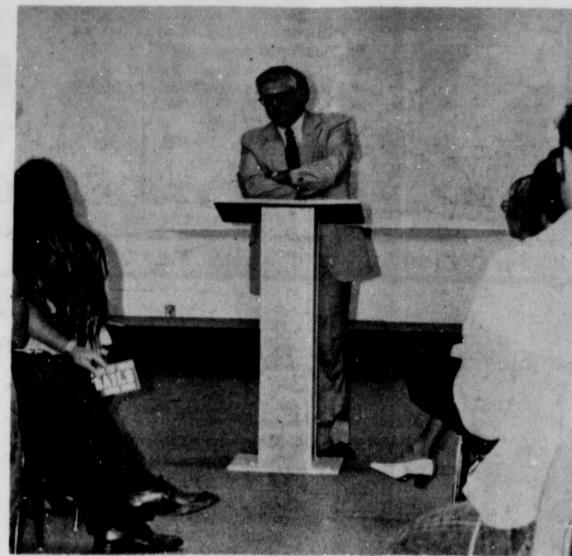

3. Concrete steps toward a restoration of personal freedoms in Cuba, including the freedom to worship.

4. Denial of Soviet base rights anywhere in Cuba.

5. Written guarantees that Cuba won't intervene in the affairs of other Western Hemisphere nations.

6. Recognition by Cuba of U.S. naval base rights at Guantanamo.

After all these years, we should be in no hurry for a "thaw" in relations with Cuba. We can afford to go slowly and carefully.

DIEDRICH SPEAKS—Orange County Supervisor tells a group of Yorba Linda County and Fullerton Recreational Riders that he will fully support unified hiking and riding trails of Brea, Fullerton and Yorba Linda.

Diedrich Views Trails

By Paul Bush

Orange County Supervisor Ralph Diedrich has pledged support for an effort to unify the riding and hiking trails of Brea, Fullerton and Yorba Linda.

Speaking before members of Fullerton Recreational Riders and Yorba Linda Country Riders May 20, Diedrich said formation of a regional trail network would require cooperation and citizen participation.

Diedrich praised Sally Pekarek paramedic, according to Assistant County Fire Chief Bill Teie. So, when Supervisor Diedrich requested a few months ago that the next team be assigned to Yorba Linda, it took a little while to get one ready.

But on June 13 the most recent graduates of the training course move into town.

The six-man team, all firemen, will be trained to provide a wide variety of emergency medical services, Assistant Chief Teie said recently. "Everything you see on Saturday night on 'Emergency'."

They're trained in administering drugs and intravenous solutions, defibrillation, reading EKG strips—all life-saving procedures.

Paramedics use these procedures under a physician's direction, therefore, they maintain constant contact with a physician over radio or through a special telephone hookup, reports Teie. In addition, Teie continued, the men are required to continue their training and to be recertified each year.

According to Rhoads, Yorba Linda will be getting the service free of additional charge from the county, since the city is already paying for county fire department protection. Placentia, which is not, will have to contract especially for the coverage at a cost of about $60,000, Rhoads said.

Since a single team can service a population of 60,000, he noted, the Yorba Linda crew will handle calls from both communities.

The six-man team will permit two paramedics to be on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, Teie said. The crew can be reached by calling the fire department.

Letters

Man Expresses Gratitude To YL People

To the Editor:

Words can not fully express my thanks to the many wonderful people of Yorba Linda who came to help when the help was needed most--on the morning of Tuesday, April 29, 1975.

I was a participant in the motorcycle and motor car accident that occurred at the intersection of Main Street and Imperial.

Gratefully, it happened in Yorba Linda, where people do get involved and not in some big city where people, if they got involved, would not know what to do.

With the assistance of the Brea Police and the Yorba Linda Volunteer fire department, and many knowledgeable and involved citizens of your city, an accident that was bad enough as it was, was kept to a minimum of severity--so thanks again.

Poppy Day Successful

The Placentia-Yorba Linda 46th annual Poppy Day sale last week was the most successful in the area's history. Mrs. Gertrude White, chairman for American Legion Auxiliary #277 reported this week.

The group sold its limit of poppies—5,065 for donations of $801.50 stated Mrs. White.

"Our special thanks goes to the schools in the Placentia Unified School District," Mrs. White explained, "where $316.65 was donated and 3,096 poppies sold."

"This amount," she explained, "will be used for some special item from a list to be sent to us from Long Beach Veteran's Hospital and also for funds for more poppies to be made by patients at the hospital next winter."

Police Beat

Saturday, May 24

Last Saturday, Frank Renfro, of 17855 Linda, Yorba Linda, discovered that sometime the week before someone stole a stored, $100 water bed from his garage.

Wednesday, May 21

Between 7 p.m. Tuesday last week and 6 a.m. the next morning, saddle thieves struck Yorba Linda, resulting in at least 11 missing saddles and other tack equipment. Total value of missing property is $4,000.

Among those reporting losses--

Harold Fred Mickelson, 19414 Oriente, lost a $200 saddle and bridle;

James E. Tice, operator of a stable at 4351 Lakeview, found two saddles and three bridles belonging to

Machado Moderates

Mario Machado, KNX-TV (CBS), host of the popular "MEDIX" television program, will be the moderator of a series of free Family Health Care Seminars at Placentia-Linda Community Hospital, 1301 Rose Drive, Placentia.

The layman-oriented programs are sponsored by the hospital's medical staff physicians from which panelists will be selected for their specialties to serve with Machado.

June 9th the theme will be "Cancers and Coronaries" covering the exploding of myths, quackery and tests.

June 16th, "The People Ask About Health"--this will be a health quiz where the audience gets involved.

As host of MEDIX, which deals with medicine and health, Mario horse-boarders, gone, for a loss of $1850;

Kate Ellen Anthony of Yorba Linda reported a $200 saddle and various tack equipment worth $175 missing from a stable at 4742 Palm, together with another person's saddle and bridle worth $90; and Landon Oscar McCuin, 18161 Buena Vista, who boards his horses, is missing six saddles, one of his own, together with bridles, for a loss of $1500.

Monday, May 19

The home of James G. L'Angelle, 4556 Valley View, Yorba Linda, was ransacked last Monday between 9:30 a.m. and 5:15 p.m. Property worth $375 was reported stolen, including a television set, a stereo, and a radio.

NEW SCHOOL

The Board of Trustees of the Placentia Unified School District Saturday approved their intent to award a $418,000 contract to DynaFab, Burbank, for construction of a new facility for El Camino Real Continuation High School. The new school will be located off of Orangethorpe Avenue near the PUSD Administration Headquarters.

JobEconomics Course Enrollment Now Open

The Job Economics Training (JET) course being delivered to the adult community will begin enrollments immediately with a new Session I (2 hours) on June 3, starting at 7:00 p.m. in the chamber office, corner of Main and Lemon Streets.

No more than nine persons (men and women) can be enrolled at a time. For the first program, beginning June 3, two adult males are already signed up for the 5 consecutive sessions. The second session will be June 10, the third session June 17, the fourth session

June 24 and the last session July 1. Topics to be discussed by all participants, with Chamber Manager, Bill Opdyke as leader are: First session—"Our economic system, what is it?"; second session—"Profits, what are they?"; third session—"Buying power, is it good or bad?"; fourth session—"Money, what is it?"; fifth session—"Government, what does it do?". Each session is 2 hours long.

Interested parties should call the chamber office, 993-5820, between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday to enroll. There is no cost, but each must attend all sessions. Enrollees should be 21 years of age or older, residents of Yorba Linda. High school education is sufficient.

Obituaries

Services Held For Main St. Merchant

Larry J. Moriarity, 58, owner of Table Praise Avocado Company on Main St. for 25 years, died May 20 in La Mirada. He is survived by his wife Delphine and daughters Patricia London, Sharon Ott, Cynthia Zuniga and seven grandchildren.

Mrs. Pekarek said she prepared the map when she realized that Fullerton was "landlocked from the Santa Ana Green Belt." Most of the trails on the map have been ridden for years, and according to Mrs. Pekarek, many of the trails in Fullerton and Yorba Linda have been incorporated into those cities' master plans.

Diedrich asked the audience to list priorities. "You tell me. I don't tell you, let's get your input." He indicated funding for a "significant project" could be gotten from revenue sharing or state funds.

The cities have "a chance, I believe, to get something significant. I can't give it to you, we've got to do it together," Diedrich said.

Recognizing a jurisdictional problem, Diedrich said he felt confident I can get reasonable city cooperation when we've got something to tell them."

Diedrich said he planned to appoint a task force to study the regional trail network, and asked that anyone interested in joining the group notify him by mail.

Mr. MacNeill lived at 16950 Lake Pleasant Lane, Yorba Linda. Services were held May 19 at Memorial Chapel, Rose Hill Memorial Park.

July 1, 1985	25,000	July 1, 1995	40,000
July 1, 1986	25,000

SIGNATURE ON BONDS: At least one of the signatures on the bonds will be manually affixed.

INTEREST: The bonds shall bear interest at a rate or rates to be fixed upon the sale thereof but not to exceed 7% per annum, payable annually for the first year and semi-annually thereafter.

PAYMENT: Said bonds and the interest thereon are payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the office of the Treasurer of Orange County.

REGISTRATION: The bonds will be coupon bonds registerable only as to both principal and interest.

NOT CALLABLE: The bonds are not callable before maturity.

SECURITY: Said bonds are general obligations of said school district, payable both principal and interest from ad valorem taxes which, under the laws now in force, may be levied without limitation as to rate or amount upon all of the taxable property, except certain personal property, in said school district.

TERMS OF SALE:

INTEREST RATE: The maximum rate bid may not exceed 7% per annum, payable annually the first year and semi-annually thereafter. Each rate bid must be a multiple of 1/2 of 1%. No bond shall bear more than one interest rate, and all bonds of the same maturity shall bear the same rate. Each bond must bear interest at the rate specified in the bid from its fixed maturity date. Not more than four interest rates may be bid, and there shall not be a spread of more than 1% between the highest and lowest interest rates bid. The repetition of any rate will not be considered informative only and not a part of the bid.

Highest Bidder: The bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the district would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity date thereof and the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed as a 360-day year basis. The purchaser may pay accrued interest from the date of all the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

Right of Rejection: The Board of Supervisors reserves the right, in its discretion, to reject any and all bids and to the extent not prohibited by law to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

Prompt Award: The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than twenty-six hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for the receipt of proposals; provided, that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given to said Board notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

Place of Delivery: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of Orange County.

Prompt Delivery, Cancellation for Late Delivery: It is expected that said bonds will be delivered to the successful bidder within thirty days from the date of sale of the same. The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within sixty days from the date of the sale thereof, and in such event the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

Form of Bid: Each bid, together with the bid check, must be in a sealed envelope, addressed to the district with the envelope and bid clearly marked "Proposal for YORBA LINDA SCHOOL DISTRICT Bonds."

Bid Check: A certified or cashier's check on a responsible bank or trust company in the amount of 3% of the principal amount of the bonds, payable to the order of the County Treasurer must accompany each proposal as a guarantee that the bidder, if successful, will accept and pay for said bonds in accordance with the terms of his bid. The proceeds of the check accompanying any accepted proposal shall be applied on the purchase price or, if such proposal is accepted but not purchased, unless such failure of performance shall be caused by any act or omission of the bidder, shall then be retained by said Board for the benefit of the district. The check accompanying any accepted proposal shall be retained by the bidder until payment is made.

Change in Tax Exempt Status: At any time before the bonds are tendered for delivery, the successful bidder may disaffirm and withdraw the proposal if the interest received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable income under present federal income tax laws, either by a ruling of the Internal Revenue Service or by a decision of any federal court, or shall be declared taxable, or be required to be taken into account in computing any federal income taxes, by the terms of any federal income tax laws enacted subsequent to the date of this notice.

Legal Opinion: The unqualified opinion of O'Melveny & Myers, attorneys, approving the validity of said bonds will be furnished the successful bidder at or prior to the date of delivery of the bonds, at the expense of the district. A copy of the legal opinion certified by the County Auditor by his facsimile signature will be printed on the back of each bond without cost to the successful bidder, if requested in his bid.

CUSIP: CUSIP numbers have been applied for and if requested by the purchaser will be printed on the bonds at the purchaser's expense.

No Litigation Certificate: At the time of payment for and delivery of said bonds the successful bidder will be furnished with a certificate that there is no litigation pending affecting the validity of the bonds.

GIVEN by order of the Board of Supervisors of Orange County, California, adopted May 6, 1975.

W. E. ST. JOHN
County Clerk of Orange County, California, and ex-officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors thereof.

The Silent Majority has too many victims; I am getting out of that crowd. It's the kind of environment which is not really healthy, especially for young men like my 19 year old son. He, your son or brother could easily be a victim of that mob. They are a strange group; I know because I was a member for many long years.

You know in the early 1960's when we entered the Vietnam fiasco; the Silent Majority silently nodded their collective heads and approved of the necessity of stopping Communism in Vietnam. They smiled their frosty smiles and allowed President Kennedy, and then Johnson, and then Nixon to rest in the cold arms of their approval. The Silent Majority shook themselves awake long enough to frown disapprovingly at McGovern and the youth of the nation when, in desperation, they took to the streets to try and show us that we were wrong, wrong in Vietnam.

More than 50,000 lives later the Silent Majority still looks, apparently unashamedly, at those cold statistics that once were such warm young men and they evidence little sorrow. Some of us, sickened by the errors of our leaders, have broken ranks with the muffled Majority and for that revolt some castigate us and some laugh—so be it. But honest to God, I would rather be condemned for trying to make things better than be looked on kindly as a "good citizen" and fail to speak out.

Where and when do we start to speak out. The Vietnam War is behind us and it's too late to say much about it except to see it as a lesson—horrifying in its meaning. It seems evident that to make things better we must begin at the local level. Input should be made to those who have the responsibility of making decisions, and that input of ideas and thoughts can only come from you and me.

As a prominent man said last week, "It took only 12 to carry the Gospel." Those 12 changed the course of history because Christ believed in their capability, their potential, and He, it seems to me, still believes in you and me to be far more than we are. We have only to accept the challenge.

America doesn't need any more members to join the Silent Majority; she needs the whole group to flee, to migrate to more vocal and active positions. Think about it.

Little Leaguers

The Twins in the Placentia Little League with Bruce Serigstad as their manager rank tops in the Minor A Division. They have won 11½ games and lost 2½. We are their sponsors and proud as punch of each one of them.

You know being a sponsor can be a little nerve-wracking and I bet most of the managers, coaches and team mothers feel the same way. It's like having nine small sons out on the field, all at one time, wanting, aching for each of them to play good ball. We delight with them when they do and hurt with them in their errors.

Good Luck to our Twins and all Little Leaguers! We think you are great!

WEARING PLACENTIA sport shirts, the special guests above were participating in unusual ceremonies taking place at Placentia City Hall last week. The 31 student and adult visitors from Piacenza, Italy were made honorary citizens of Placentia and also of Orange County. In the second ceremony, hosted by Board of Supervisors Chairman Ralph Diederich, everyone was honored including the group above. In the picture in front, Luca Levoni, son of Rita Levoni, the Italian teacher, who inspired the American trip; Diego Spagnoli, whose father Mario stands in back of him. Diego has been special guest in Mayor and Robert Lyon's home. ## Tiny Tot Classes Open

Mrs. Eileen Hunt will be the instructor for the 1975 Summer Fun Tiny Tots program which will be offered by the Placentia Recreation Department.

The Tiny Tots program is designed to help the pre-schooler develop social skills and explore such mediums as paint, clay, music and dance. Proof of the child's age is required when registering for this class.

The classes will begin the week of June 23 and will be held at the Backs Community Building in September. Children completing graduate classes will participate in a graduation ceremony, at the close of Tiny Tots.

The schedule, with all classes at the Backs Community Building at 201 N. Bradford. Placentia residents will be able to register from the hours of 8 a.m. until 10 a.m. Registration will be open for resident and non-residents from 10 a.m. until 12 noon. Registration will continue for residents and non-residents Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. until 6 p.m. at the Recreation Department office at 117 N. Main Street.

Graduate classes are for youngsters entering kindergarten in September. Children completing graduate classes will be made in person.

Camp Winner Named

The Placentia Jayettes have picked a winner for their one week sponsorship to Camp Osceola. Eight year old Bobby McManus submitted his essay, using the topic: "I'd like the Placentia Jayettes to sponsor me at Camp Osceola because...", and was awarded the prize.

Bobby resides in Placentia with his parents and his brother, Mike. Bobby's family recently moved to Placentia from New Jersey and Mrs. McManus said that Bobby has missed his old friends. However, she feels that one week at summer camp will be just the thing to help Bobby adjust to his new home here. Needless to say, Bobby himself was overjoyed by the news that he had won the contest.

The Placentia Jayettes would like to thank all the boys and girls who submitted essays and know that they will join the Jayettes in wishing Bobby congratulations.

Low Cost*Rabies Shots
